The Somos en escrito Literary Foundation, a non-profit, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization, operates Somos en escrito Magazine and the publishing house, Somos en escrito Literary Foundation Press. We seek to be the go-to place for Chicanos, Native American, and U.S. Latinos to publish their works.

Our first three books were finalists in the 2020 International Latino Book Awards, Insurgent Aztlán, by Ernesto Mireles, Theorizing César Chávez, New ways of Knowing STEM by Armando Arias, and Postcards from a PostMexican, by Álvaro Ramirez. We ended 2020 with Undesirable Race and Remembrance by Robert René Galván. In 2021, we published Our Grandfathers Were Braceros, a bilingual book on the Bracero Program, the Fantasy book, Death Song of the Dragón Chicxulub by R. Ch. Garcia, and the 50th anniversary edition of Chicano Manifesto, a seminal book on the movement. In 2022 we started out with El Porvenir ¡Ya! Citalzazanilli Mexicatli, the first Chicano Science Fiction anthology. We are soon to publish Nuestra Realidad Creativa / Our Creative Reality, a nonfiction anthology.
